

book camp

Announcing a New Study Opportunity

Book Camp 2018

June 8 – 17
Dragon Press Bindery
Highworth, Wiltshire

Book Camp offers four two-day classes on aspects of bookbinding and is designed for anyone working in the various book art fields or conservation who is keen to learn more about binding techniques.

Tuition will be given by the four founders of Book Camp at this purpose-built bindery set in the beautiful Wiltshire countryside. You are welcome to camp in the spacious grounds of the house or stay in a local B&B.

The workshop programme:

Vellum Binding with Michael Burke

Edelpappband with Dieter Räder

Leather Facsimile Chemise with Philippa Räder

Library Style Binding with Dominic Riley

We will share meals and enjoy informal presentations in the evenings, followed by time around the camp fire.

On the mid-point free day between classes we will visit nearby places of special interest.

Fees cover tuition, detailed hand-outs, all materials and meals. Camping is free of charge.

We look forward to seeing you in June for our inaugural Book Camp!

For further details visit our website: www.bookcamp.org.uk