

book camp 2020 bursary

The founders of Book Camp are offering one half bursary, worth £500, to attend the full 2020 programme of four classes. This is open to anyone training or working in the wide field of bookbinding, book conservation and book arts, who intends to continue doing so for the foreseeable future.

Applicants are requested to submit the following to info@bookcamp.org.uk:

- CV.
- Contact details.
- Outline of why they wish to attend, including how this will enhance their skills and knowledge as well as influence their future plans.
- Images of their work from the last two years.
- Two references.

Applications will close at 23:59 on 6 March 2020 and the successful candidate notified by email on 9 March 2020. An announcement will thereafter be posted on the Book Camp website.

The recipient will be required to produce a report of their experience.

Book Camp takes its data protection responsibilities seriously and its data handling procedures are designed to prevent unlawful access to data it holds. Book Camp will never pass your data to a third party. In providing your personal data, you give your consent for Book Camp to use it for the purpose of communicating with you to provide information on its events and activities.